Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. — 2 Timothy 4:2

NOV / DEC NEWS 2005

BECOMING GOD-CENTERED CHURCHES

God has opened the door for Jim to preach the Principles of a God-Centered Church many different places over the last six weeks, and the responses have overwhelmingly confirmed God's call into this ministry to churches and pastors. Jim taught the principles in a 3-4 hour seminar format to interdenominational pastors at a Baptist retreat center in the Lynchburg, VA area, to New River Baptist Church in Melbourne, FL, to Ira Baptist Church in Ira, VT, and to a group of bi-vocational pastors and their wives at the Brevard Baptist Association Office in Rockledge, FL.

Jim also preached the principles at a God-Centered Church Conference held at Walton Road Baptist Church in Port St. Lucie, FL November 18-20. This 3-day, 4-message format is Jim's favorite way to communicate the Principles of a God-Centered Church. It provides time for interaction, discussion and application to specific needs. God is so faithful, and His people discover His faithfulness as they apply principles from His Word.

FLORIDA BAPTIST CONVENTION

Jim and his wife Becky enjoyed a time of refreshing as they attended the 2005 Florida Baptist Convention and Pastor's Conference. They enjoyed listening to speakers such as Charles Lowery, Chuck Colson, Kevin Cosby and Vance Pitman. They had some treasured time together as they prayer-walked for the Ministry, had a date-night and met up with long-time friends.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for wisdom as Jim has been presented with several opportunities for 2006, including some overseas.

Pray for the professors at Liberty University in the Pastoral Leadership Department as they prayerfully consider having Jim come to teach a one-week undergraduate course and/or a one day Seminar for Doctor of Ministry students.

UPCOMING OPPORTUNITIES FOR JUSTAPREACHER

Even though December is often a slow time for itinerant preachers (churches typically want their pastors in the pulpit over the holidays), Jim has several unique opportunities to minister in different ways. Early in December Jim will be recording a couple of short Christmas segments for TV 31, a Melbourne-area station. He has been asked to teach the Principles of a God-Centered Church to Tony Kessinger's Sunday Bible Study Class at First Baptist Church, Melbourne over three weeks in December. Also, The Body of Christ Fellowship, a church that meets on Saturday Nights at Central Baptist Church in Melbourne, has invited Jim to come and speak on "How to Recognize 'White'", from John 4:35, where Christ says, "...Look at the fields, they are already white for harvest!"

Jim will be enjoying some time with his family this December, seizing each moment as a busy 2006 approaches. We here at Justapreacher Ministries pray that you will have a blessed Christmas focused on all our Savior is to us. Merry Christmas!
